

Family Guide to School Code of Conduct

Implementing the MAC Tarbiyah framework in our schools, MAC OGS aims to deliver a safe, inclusive and comfortable learning environment where every student is respected and encouraged to flourish under the guidance of Quran and Sunnah. Maintaining a respectful and strong home and school partnership is essential to the success of our children. At MAC Olive Grove School we have a commitment to uphold Islamic values through all that we do, as we know our families will do the same, in order to provide the best learning experience to our students.

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "أَلَا كُلُّكُمْ رَاعٍ وَكُلُّكُمْ مَسْنُونٌ عَنْ رَعِيَّتِهِ"
"Every one of you is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock."
- Prophet Muhammad SAW

As partners in the learning journey of our students, all parents, guardians and caregivers have the responsibility to:

- Engage in your child's academic and behavioral progress, while maintaining healthy communication with your child's teachers to ensure their overall success and well-being;
- Reinforce and support school policies and rules to allow your child(ren) to understand consequences around both good and bad conduct;
- Engage in conversations with your child(ren) about positive interaction with their peers, and about what is right and wrong, in light of the Quran and Sunnah;
- Reinforce the concept of 'Digital Citizenship' in your child(ren) by reviewing the appropriate use of technology in alignment with OGS rules around use of technology;
- Stay updated with the school communication through the Weekly Groove and your child's Google Classroom in order to be aware of your child's learning and tarbiyah.

قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ "إِنَّ مِنْ أَخْيَرِكُمْ أَحْسَنَكُمْ خُلُقًا"
"The best among you are those who have the best manners and character."
- Prophet Muhammad SAW

As community members it is our responsibility to:

- Share the responsibility to best implement Islamic values in our children by modeling the best behaviour;
- Maintain mutual respect while dealing with all school community members, as guided by the Sunnah of our Prophet and reflect 'husn alkhuluq' (the best character) during our interactions with one another, whether online or in person;
- Share the responsibility to eliminate any discrimination or biases against students, staff or parents;.
- Support school programs and initiatives in any capacity;
- Bring concerns to the school staff and/or administration in a timely, positive and constructive manner, while avoiding involving others not related to the concern.

We hope to continue to work in partnership with our parents and the community for the holistic upbringing and Tarbiyah of our children.

Together, let's continue to 'Inspire Believers To Be Community Leaders'.
